

Berlin - Impressions of the German capital

von Dieter Meyer

Impressive pictures of a German metropolis.

Berlin is the capital of the Federal Republic of Germany with a population of around 3.7 million. With the fall of the Berlin Wall in 1989 and German reunification in 1990, the city developed into a trendy metropolis. Since 1999, the city has also been the final seat of the Federal Government and the Bundestag in the historic Reichstag building. Berlin is a preferred destination within Europe after London and Paris for many international tourists.
