

Rome - Eternal City on the Tiber

von Dieter Meyer

Rome - Cradle of European culture and centre of Christianity

According to legend, Rome was founded by Remus and Romulus about 750 years before Christ. The metropolis on the Tiber was once founded on seven hills and is rich in cultural treasures. With its countless sights such as ancient buildings, baroque churches and art treasures, Rome is unique. Within the capital of the former 'Roman Empire' is the Vatican with St. Peter's Basilica and the Castel Sant'Angelo. This fascinating city is the destination of countless tourists from all over the world.

