

DANCERS IN THE CITY L'Oeil et le Mouvement

von Nathalie Vu-Dinh

When dancers perform their beautiful art in urban space, magic and fascination take you away

Dancers fascinate ... Their poise and their beauty captivate the watcher's eye. Nathalie Vu-Dinh, dance photographer of L'Oeil et le Mouvement (meaning "the eye and the movement") invites us to follow them off-stage in a familiar environment : the city. Let yourself be enthralled by the magic of these beautiful dancers expressing the magnificence of their art in places we go around every day.
